Cervical Cancer Screening Rates for Alabama Medicaid Patients Ages 21 to 64 (HEDIS Measure)

-Represents women in Alabama who have completed routine cervical cancer screening.
-Source: https://www.medicaid.gov/medicaid/quality-of-care/core-set-data-dashboard/measure/Cervical-Cancer-Screening-Ages-21-to-64-CCS-AD?keywords=%5B%22902%22%5D&measure=HC.66&dataset=2025&measureView=state&dataView=acrossTime&population=999&methodology=999&chart=table&timePeriods=%5B%222021%22,%222025%22%5D&chartEntities=%5B%22AL%22%5D

Cervical Cancer Screening Rates for Alabama Health Center Patients Ages 21 to 64 (UDS Measure)

-Health Centers include HRSA-designated Federally Qualified Health Care Centers or Look-Alikes.
-Represents women in Alabama who have completed routine cervical cancer screening.
-Source: https://data.hrsa.gov/topics/healthcenters/uds/overview/state/al/#fn*